ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certainly it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

STEALING AND SELLING.

But Chief Scott Soon Wound up the Business.

For some time systematic robbery at the Finishing Mill has been going on and it was so cleverly done that no one detected it for awhile. Chief of Police Scott, who is a detective of no mean ability, got scent of it yesterday, and was only about two hours in landing his man, though there may be others connected with the robbery.

It was found that Messrs. Thacker & Brockmann, W. H Daily and Turner Rankin had purchased some cloth goods from a man who claimed that he had a store near Brown Summit, and that he wanted to close out, therefore was willing to sell the goods at a sacrifice. The man was spotted and proved to be one L. Epps, who resides over the store at the Finishing Mill. A warrant was procured and Mr. Scott accompanied by Officer Cates and Mr. Ceasar Cone, found the man in the rear of the block of stores near the dispensary, and put the bracelets on him, later giving him a berth in the county jail.

The goods stole were the product of the Proximity and the Finishing mills, and Mr. Cone was particularly interested in the capture of the thief. He was on hand at the arrest and ready to lend a hand had it been necessary

Epps will have a preliminary hearing before 'Squire Eckel this afternoon.

A few days ago the store at the Steel and Iron Works was robbed and some shoes taken. Epps is now believed to be the man who committed this deed.

The cloth stealing is much more extensive than was at first supposed, about $500.00 worth of stolen goods having already been recovered.

TRIAL POSTPONED.

The case was called at three o'clock, and postponed until Monday morning to allow defendant time to secure a witness, who lives six miles in the country. Mr. R. R King represents the plaintiffs and Col. Staples the defendant.

Full of Agility and Energy.

The Telegram, a few days ago, had occasion to speak in favorable terms of Mr. P. D. Gold, Jr., superintendent of Bradstreet's Commercial agency in this city. The Wilson Daily News, published at Mr. Gold's old home, copied the article and added the following:

"The people of Greensboro will not be disappointed in Mr Gold. He is a sterling young man, full of ability and energy, and will prove a valuable addition to Greensboro and become a factor in its growth and progress."

We have just opened a fresh shipment of girls' spring heeled shoes, button and laced, with patent leather and kid tips, price $1 25 and $1 50 They are excellent shoes, fit well, look nice and wear well. All sizes from 11½ to two. Thacker & Brockmann.

Monday High Point votes on the water works question. Men of High Point who have it in their power to help carry this election, take heed and remember that the eyes of the world are upon you. Shall High Point take another great and important step forward, or shall she with that progressive spirit that has been characteristic of her since the first blast from a whistle was heard within her borders, take a step backward We hardly think she will. Let it be known to the outside world that High Point, the progressive manufacturing town, has voted bonds for water works, etc., and it will do more to the upbuilding of our city than any one thing could possibly accomplish. Of course there are a thousand and one reasons why we should have water works, which are easily seen by thinking, but will not go into further details but leave it to you—voter—to say by your ballot next Monday whether we make a stride forward or not. Consider well and act wisely.

Remarkably Fine Telegraphic Service.

Oak Ridge, N. C., Oct 13—Editor Telegram: I wish to call attention to some remarkably fine telegraphic service At 3:20 p m. yesterday I sent a telegram from Chapel Hill to Prof. M. H. Holt, Kernersville, N. C., prepaying for same, including one cent for Uncle Sam's Philippine war; on arriving at Kernersville at 8:15 p m, I found that the message had not yet reached that office. At 5 p. m. Prof. Wright wired the Clegg Hotel to have supper ready for the ball team on arrival of train. This message was also prepaid, including the one cent missionary money.

On Monday a party here wired the cashier of one of your banks to wire ten dollars to a party in a North Carolina town, to find out later that he could have reached the party by mail earlier by three hours.

Query: Would it not pay the W. U. Telegraph Company to abandon its wires and adopt a relay of mails?

The public has suffered long enough at the hands of this monopoly. It is safe to say that the average telegram in North Carolina requires from 2½ to 5 hours for delivery, particularly if it must be repeated at any place where business is heavy and the force of operators small. The above matters will be referred to the Railroad Commission.

Yours,
J. Allen Holt.

Eller, of Winston, has been sent to Hendersonville to appear before Judge Ewart, in an effort to secure an injunction against the sale of the Winston Hardware Co's stock of goods to Wall & Huske, of Winston, by Mr. W. Mr. Eller was expected to return today.

SITUATION IN VIRGINIA.

The Talk About Independent Candidates.

DEWEY MAY PASS GREENSBORO

It Is Probable That the Admiral's Trip to Atlanta Will be Over the Southern Railway.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 14—Virginia democrats coming to Washington say that the talk that the democratic managers in the state are fearful over the large number of independents springing up on different counties of the state, as candidates for the legislature, is without foundation. There has been considerable opposition to the election of Senator Martin, and the conditions existing in the present campaign have been such as to encourage a large number of independent candidates With practically no opposition from the republicans, or populists, as an organized opposition, it is not surprising that certain men with political ambition should contest for the seats in doubtful districts, but the idea that these independents, so-called, will work any danger to the democracy in future campaigns, or that there lurks in the present state of affairs, any danger of a wide-spread opposition in the democratic ranks next year, is laughed at by men who are in a position to understand the Virginia democracy. It is alleged by democratic leaders coming to this city that most of the men who are now running as independents are politicians who have never had, or at least have not now any standing in the democratic party in the state. The situation existing in Henry county is cited for instance There a man named Graveley is running as a so-called independent democrat. His political record shows six years ago he was on an opposition ticket for attorney general and that subsequently he supported republican nominees in the state. It is said, though this cannot be proved, that he voted for Harrison for president. He supported Bryan in 1896, not as a democrat, but as a populist. It is probable that if the record of other independents were hunted up it would be found that in a vast majority of instances, they would be similar to that of the candidate in Henry county.

Senators Pilcher, Daniel and Martin; Representatives Swanson, Otey, Lamb, Jones and others who are frequent visitors here during the recess of congress, all say that the democratic party in Virginia is strong and that the present condition of affairs within the party will not deter the state from giving the democratic ticket for president electors the usual big majority next year. Senator Martin is working, it is true to prevent the election to the legislature of independent candidates, the same as he would to prevent the election of republicans, or populists, and so are the other democratic leaders, but the idea that they are anxious as to future campaigns is far from the truth. If the republicans are building up any hopes next year in Virginia upon the prospect of any disintegration of the democracy of the state, they are keeping very quiet about it.

It is said that it is likely that the trip of Admiral Dewey to Atlanta will be made over the Southern Railroad, and if this is the case he will be given every facility of the Southern road. The management of the line will doubtless furnish one of its best trains for the use of the party. The passage of Admiral Dewey through Virginia and North Carolina, will be marked by continuous ovations, and it is hoped that he will be able to stop off at some few of the cities in both States, that the people may be given an opportunity to greet him.

A gentleman from North Carolina, who was in the city the other day, said that if the Admiral went to Atlanta by way of the Southern that he would be given big ovations at Charlotte, Greensboro and other cities of the State. Many of the towns are already discussing he says, the proper way to greet the arrival of the train bearing the party.

Many of the sporting men in Washington are becoming much disappointed, not to say somewhat disgusted at the failure to pull off the yacht race at New York. Many of those who went to witness the races are returning home, having been unable to remain in the city during the uncertainty owing to to the exorbitant charges which are being put on visitors there.

John G Staples, a well known citizen of Reidsville, North Carolina, is in the city for a few days on a business trip. During his stay in Washington he is making his headquarters at the St. James hotel.

A pension of twelve dollars per month has just been issued by the pension bureau to Mrs. Briscoe, of Alexandria. Mrs Briscoe is the mother of William A Briscoe, a soldier of the war with Spain.

A NOVEL DAMAGE SUIT

Action Against the W. & W. For False Arrest.

An interesting case from Granville county will be argued before the Supreme Court when the appeals from the Fifth district are taken up week after next.

It is a suit for damages against the Wilmington & Weldon railroad, but the grounds for action are new to the legal fraternity. The case differs materially from the general run of damage suits which are instituted against railroads

The title of the action is Owens vs. Railroad, from Granville county. Owens, who is a colored man, was arrested by the sheriff of Cumberland county at Fayetteville upon the strength of a telegram from a sheriff of South Carolina and a statement by the conductor of a train of the Wilmington & Weldon, on which he was a passenger. Owens was supposed to be a murderer who was escaping from South Carolina, and he was held for two days in the jail at Fayetteville. It was shown that the wrong man was arrested. Owens brought suit for $3,000 damages for illegal arrest, with which he holds the railroad responsible.

The case was tried in the Superior court of Granville county, before Judge George H. Brown, who held that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover. The case was then appealed to the Supreme Court.

The plaintiff alleges in his complaint among other things that he was a passenger on the defendant's train, and that the conductor wilfully and maliciously and without probable cause procured the plaintiff to be arrested as a criminal by the sheriff of Cumberland county without warrant or any process of law, and that the conductor aided and abetted in wrongfully and illegally arresting the plaintiff; that plaintiff was put in jail, but finally discharged from imprisonment, having been found innocent of any violation of the criminal law; that by reason of the unlawful and negligent act of the defendant the plaintiff has suffered great mental anguish and disgrace, etc. He claims $3,000 damages.—Morning Post.

KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

Distressing Fate of Mr. Jno. Meadows of Oxford.

Oxford, N. C., October 12—Mr Jno. Meadows, a prominent and popular tobacco buyer of this place, was killed today by the accidental discharge of his gun.

He was returning home in a buggy from a hunting trip in company with Col. L. C. Edwards. By some means the gun went off, the load emptying itself in the neck.

This most distressing occurrence has cast a gloom over the community.

What is called smokeless powder really throws off a shadowy vapor. This vapor is perceptible only when viewed through a disk of violet glass inserted in an ordinary fieldglass. Colonel Sweet, of the Army Medical Museum, Washington, made this discovery.

LIABILITY OF RAILROADS.

If there is one class of people more imposed upon than another it is the railroad people. That railroads sometimes practice the imposition business themselves there is no doubt, but charges are brought, and often sustained, against them by juries on the most frivolous grounds. The following case is reported in Col. Olds' correspondence:

There is a queer case on the docket of the Supreme Court from the fifth district. A negro was wanted in South Carolina for murder. The sheriff of Cumberland county, this state, was on the lookout for the criminal and near Fayetteville a conductor on the train pointed out as the man a negro who was arrested and jailed. But he proved to be the wrong man and now he sues the railroad company for $3,000 damages. It is certainly a case in which the liability of a railroad to damages is strained to the utmost.

"Good Roads and Good Schools for Guilford County the Best Investment it is Possible for Us to Make."

The Greensboro Evening Telegram keeps this motto standing at its head in big letters. Would it not be well for every paper in North Carolina to keep a similar sentiment constantly before its readers? And would it not be all the better if "good schools came first? "Good schools" is the key to the solution of all other problems.—North Carolina Journal of Education.

The Journal is right. "Good schools" is secondary to no other consideration. By placing good roads first in our motto we had no thought of conveying the idea that good schools were not just as important. Both are entitled to the greatest consideration and their promotion should receive our strongest and most earnest efforts.

The letter of Mr. J. M. Hendrix, in yesterday's Telegram, concerning the city hall and market house question, is receiving some high endorsements. The idea of separating the two and of making the first floor of the new building a public library seems to be receiving favorable consideration. The Telegram will be glad if those who take an interest in the subject will further discuss it in these columns.

Friends of Col. A. F. Page, who owns the Aberdeen & Asheboro railroad, are pained to learn of his critical illness. Mr. Walter H. Page, of New York, is in Raleigh to visit his father and attend at his sick-bed. We wish for Mr. Page a speedy recovery.

Col. Olds wants Spencer Blackburn to secure an order of the court requiring the other fellow, who is the "very image of him," to wear side-whiskers, so there will be no more mistakes as to identity.

SCHLEY CAN'T COME.

Thanks President Battle for the Invitation.

Rear Admiral W. S. Schley, the hero of Santiago, will not be with us fair week.

In a letter to Mr. R. H. Battle, the president of the Agricultural Society, the rear admiral states that it will be impossible for him to be the guest of the state fair on the 18th, for the reason that he has previously made an engagement to be with his home people in Frederick, Maryland, at that time.

Rear Admiral Schley expresses a kindly interest in his letter for the people of the Old North State. They would be delighted to honor the great and modest sailor, whom the people admire and esteem fully as much as as Dewey. Rear Amiral Schley's letter to President Battle is given herewith:

The Everett,
Washington, D. C., Oct. 11, 1899.

My Dear Sir:—I thank you most sincerely for your kind invitation to visit the state fair at Raleigh, N. C., on October 18; and I beg to say that I have already promised the people of Frederick to visit them on this same day. As this is to meet the people of my home, I am sure you will appreciate the regret that I feel in having to forego the pleasure of meeting my North Carolina friends at this time.

I hope, however, that I may have the pleasure of meeting and greeting my friends in the Old North State at some time in the near future.

Very truly yours,
W. S. Schley.

MASSACRED BY SAVAGES.

Liverpool, October 12—The steamer Niger, which arrived today from Southwest Africa, brings news of the massacre of the Lieutenant Guise, German Commissioner at Rio Del Rey, near Old Calaba River, on the Bight of Biafra, and also of Herr Leemeyer, a German trader, together with a hundred native soldiers and carriers, constituting an expedition formed by Lieutenant Guise to quell disturbances near the Cross River, which forms the boundary between British and German territory there.

A native chief was taken as a guide, but he led the expedition into ambush. He was promptly shot when the Germans received a volley. They fought courageously, but were outnumbered and slain.

The natives then looted the neighboring factories and murdered the native employes, after which they crossed into British territory. Two British traders, who were warned, had a narrow escape, managing to get down the river in a canoe and to reach Rio Del Rey, where they found only a solitary German official and a half dozen black soldiers.

Great excitement prevailed at Rio Del Rey when the Niger left on September 17th, as it was thought the natives might come there.

News had been sent to the Cameroons, from which point a German relief expedition could be dispatched.

A Converted Distiller.

During a recent revival in Davie county a government distiller named E. D. C. Pope was converted. He went to his distillery and tore the stills furnace and destroyed what beer or mash there was in the tubs. The whiskey on hand was in the government warehouse and he had no right to interfere without stamping. He will have to account to the goverment for the beer as though he had converted it into whiskey and this will cost him about $32.—Winston special to Charlotte Observer.

MR. NEILL AGAIN

Endeavoring to Justify His August Estimate.

Mr. Neill, the cotton statistician of New Orleans, is out in another article in which he endeavors to justify his August estimate of a probable 12,000,000 bale crop, and to insist that the present crop may reach 11,000,000 bales.

Mr. Neill relies upon the comparative rainfall of 1898 and 1899, which he claims has been more favorable this than last year, when the crop reached eleven and a quarter million bales.

There is one important difference between this and last year, which Mr. Neill overlooks.

There was no contention in the fall of last year that the cotton was not in the field. It was admittedly there, let the rainfall of the August and September previous be what it may. The only doubt, last October, of gathering 12 million bale crop, was the inability of the farmers of Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas to gather the crop. Had bad seasons prevailed in November and December, and other difficulties complained of as existing in September and October, the failure to pick the crop then admitted to be in the fields would have resulted in a 9 million bale crop, as was predicted in October. But we all remember that exceptionable weather for picking which prevailed during November, December and January, and in many sections of the South it is notorious that picking proceeded in the same field where the ground was being prepared for the present year's crop Thus by being enabled to save the cotton that was actually there, the crop reached the 11½ million figure.

While there was more rainfall this past August than during August of last year, and, quite up to the middle of September prospects were favorable for at least a duplication of last year's crop, since that time drought and storm have gotten in their work, which actually destroyed the cotton in the bud, causing bolls to drop, mature too early, or depreciate greatly in quality. A full loss of 25 per cent. of what was promised the last of August, is known to be true so far as North Carolina is concerned, and form 25 to 35 per cent. loss is the most conservative placed upon the crop in all the other states. So, let the remainder of the picking season be ever so good, the cotton is not in the fields to enable the crop to reach to possible limit of 11 million bales as Mr. Neill now suggests. As we say, it was admittedly in the fields last year, and the excellent weather up to and into February permitted its being gathered; not being in existense at all this year, it will be impossible for the discrepancy to be made up.

The Post was the first to call attention to the probable effect of the drought and the storms, and to advise the farmers to watch conditions and prepare themselves to take advantage of them. Had August conditions and promised continued throughout we were satisfied then as all admit now a 12 million bale crop would follow, this to result certainly in 5 cent cotton. The severe and far-reaching storms of the south, followed by drought through out the cotton territory, at the very season when the cotton was "making" suggested and sustained the Post in its early notice to the farmers of a probable shortage, and of a necessarily higher price, which higher price we wanted the farmer to get the benefit of.

We find no fault with Mr. Neill's prediction of August of last year, nor with that of August of this year. His great mistake now lies in his reliance upon a contingency which saved him last year, but which lacks the one absolutely essential element of salvation this year, the presence of the cotton in the fields. Without the cotton the shortage cannot be made up, let weather and all else be ever so favorable.

We therefore again suggest to all, hold on, at least for some weeks longer. We believe it will pay all to do so.—Raleigh Post.

I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Raleigh Mills to Run at Night.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 12—Just so soon as a sufficient force of competent hands can be had, the Raleigh Cotton Mills will put on a night shift, and its spindles will hum through the whole 24 hours. The reason for this increase of productive capacity lies in the state of the yarn market.

For some time past there has been an increasingly sharp demand for cotton yarns and the orders have come to the Raleigh Cotton Mills thick and fast, until it is now several months behind with orders and with no hope of catching up except by putting on extra hands. It manufactures hosiery yarns only. The mill now employs about 150 hands, and the doubling of its force, therefore, means that 150 additional people will find employment for the time being and perhaps permanently.

Love is the corner-stone of a woman's life. She builds all her hopes upon and around those tender affections which she cherishes toward the ones who are dear to her, and which she looks to receive from them in return.

This is woman's nature; it is the God-given instinct that makes her a fond and tender sweetheart; a comforting, helpful wife; an ever-loving, solicitous, care-taking mother.

When a woman feels that the responsibilities and duties of wifehood and motherhood have become irksome to her—a burden and trouble rather than a source of uplifting and inspiration—it shows that there is some deficiency in her physical make-up; some abnormal and unhealthy condition of the delicate and important special structure of womanhood.

Many thousands of women annually write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the eminent specialist in women's diseases requesting professional advice—which he is always glad to send without charge—and telling him of the marvelous benefits they have received from his wonderful "Favorite Prescription" in building up their special health and physical energy.

"I would like to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. H. C. Anderson, of South Britain, New Haven Co., Conn. "During the first month of pregnancy I could not keep anything on my stomach. I was so sick that I had to go to bed and stay for weeks.

"I tried different doctors, but with little benefit. I read about many being helped by using your medicine so I thought I would give it a trial. I began to take 'Favorite Prescription' in November and I had a nice little baby girl in February following. My baby weighed over eight pounds. I was only in hard labor about one hour and got along nicely during confinement; was up and dressed on the eighth day.

"The 'Favorite Prescription' helped me wonderfully. It kept me from having a miscarriage. This makes my second child; with the first one I did not take 'Favorite Prescription' and I had a miscarriage. This last baby is as plump and healthy as any mother could wish."

USE OF SUNDAY TRAINS.

Synod Sets the Seal of Its Disapproval.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 13—The time of the synod today was occupied mainly in consideration of reports, which developed some interesting discussions.

Resolutions were passed condemning church members for using mails and riding on trains on Sunday. Dr Campbell quoted prominent railroad officials as saying that trains could not be run on Sunday except for patronage of church members.

It was recommended that monthly offerings be taken in Sunday schools for the benefit of the orphans' home. S. C. Rankin and P. M. Brown were re-elected regents of the home.

The morning sermon was preached by Rev. M. McG. Shields, of Gastonia.

Resolutions were adopted commending the Presbyterian Standard as the organ of the church, and editor McKelway for his vigorous conduct of the paper. It was announced that nearly one thousand dollars of stock had been subscribed at this session of the synod.

Tonight there was a popular meeting in behalf of Sunday schools, led by Mr Vardell, who presented an encouraging report from the Sunday school committee. There were short addresses also by two members of the Afro-Presbyterian church.

After the meeting of the synod tonight in the interest of Sunday schools the synod adjourned to meet at Raleigh next year.

"Have you studied any language beside English?"

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "three: golf, baseball and yachting."

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contributed to it.--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

What is called smokeless powder really throws off a shadowy vapor. This vapor is perceptible only when viewed through a disk of violet glass inserted in an ordinary fieldglass. Colonel Sweet, of the Army Medical Museum, Washington, made this discovery.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.
MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

OF

Book-keeping, Business and Ornamental Penmanship and Shorthand.

For Both Sexes.

READ CAREFULLY.

PROF. V. THEO. ELY,
(12 Years Experience in Teaching)

Graduate from Rochester Business University, Rochester, N. Y., will open up a select school in Both Double and Single Entry Book-keeping, Shorthand and Muscular Movement Business Writing, at the Brockmann School of Music Hall, beginning from 9 till 11 a. m., also a separate night school from 7:00 till 9:00 for those who cannot attend in day time. No extra tuition for combining both periods.

Tuition in both writing and book-keeping combined, full course, $10.00; writing alone, strictly slant, $3.00. Payable at the expiration of the term.

Success is guaranteed to all who attend regularly and apply themselves, or no charge will be made for tuition.

Term will continue until completed, which requires from six to eight weeks. If you ever expect to learn book-keeping or to write a good hand, now is your time.

No tuition is paid till the term closes, and the term does not close till all have finished the book-keeping course, and each student is his own judge as to when he knows it.

This fact should be taken as sufficient guarantee of safety and success. Let the pupils attend regularly and we will be responsible for the rest. NO LESSONS TO STUDY AT HOME.

Stationery for full book-keeping course, including writing material, etc., not over 80 cents. Writing material, etc., furnished at the hall.

Hall will be kept warm and comfortable.

Why You Should Attend This School:

Because for $10.00 you get the same identical course in book-keeping and penmanship that you would get at any commercial college at from $150 to $250. Because you complete the course before you pay tuition. Because every subject is taught from the blackboard without the use of a text book. Because every other branch except book-keeping and writing, is excluded, making it possible to complete the course in from six to eight weeks.

Because we, the undersigned pupils, have just finished Prof. Ely's course in book-keeping and writing at Nicholson's Hall, Union, S. C., and freely testify to the fact that truly he offers a chance of a lifetime to learn these important branches of business education:

H. E. Mabry, W. C. Hames, Webster Gregory, W. H. West, W. C. Smith, J. O. Babb, F. C. Posey, J. T. Hawkins, James L. Hawkins, George Witherspoon, T. J. Betenbaugh (county supervisor), J. F. Powell, J. G. Farr.

UNION, S. C.

We take pleasure in saying that PROF. V. THEO. ELY has commended himself to us as a first-class gentleman in every sense of the word and worthy of anyone's confidence, both socially and professionally:

J. H. Hamilton, M. D.; F. B. Culp, Chief Police; J. G. Going, M. D; L. S. Townsend, Merchant; Geo. Munro, Cashier Merchants' and Planters' Bank; J. G. Farr, County Auditor; H. G. Bailey, Merchant; F. M. Whitlock, Chairman County Board of Control; The Williamson Co., Jewelry; J. L. Hicks, Superintendent Union Cotton Mills.

Judge R. M. Douglas is still improving and expects to leave Monday for Raleigh to resume his duties as associate justice of the supreme court.

Tomorrow will be the fourth anniversary of the present pastorate at West Washington street Baptist church. All the members are urged to be present.

Rev. R. L. Wharton will preach at Westminster church tomorrow morning. Mr. Wharton expects to go to Cuba as a missionary about the first of December.

Parties indebted for insurance in the endowment rank, Knights of Pythias, will find Mr. G. H. Royster in his office in the Wright building ready to receipt for same.

The J. Van Lindley Nursery Co. will on Monday ship a carload of peach trees to Michigan. The shipping season of Nursery stock is just beginning to open up.

The handsome sign on the front of Southern Loan and Trust Co's. office was finished this afternoon by Rees & Bond. It is the prettiest sign in the city, if not in the entire state.

At Providence Baptist church Rev. N. A. Murriatt, the pastor, will preach tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Baptizing at 7:30 p m. in the new pool at the church. All are welcome.

Capt. P. D. Price tendered his resignation as a member of the board of aldermen from the second ward last night. His reason for this step is that he will be absent from the city most of the time during the winter.

The Guilford College football team went down to Chapel Hill to-day to try their skill and pluck on the gridiron against the University team. Like the Oak Ridge boys, they were feeling pretty sure of being able to score against Carolina.

Notice the change of ad of the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company today. Mr. J. Elwood Cox, of High Point, has been chosen as a director and his name added to the list, a reading of which carries with it a feeling of security and confidence.

Rev. Dr. Lacy Dead.

His friends throughout North Carolina and Virginia will be pained to learn of the death of Rev. Dr. W. S. Lacy, which occurred this morning at the home of his brother, Mr. B. R Lacy, in Raleigh.

It will be remembered that Dr. Lacy recently resigned his pastorate in Norfolk, on account of ill health, and came home to North Carolina to recuperate. He was for a number of years postor of the Jonesboro and Buffalo churches in Moore county, was a fine preacher and greatly beloved and popular man. He married Miss Mary Shepherd, daughter of Mrs. W. S. Russell, of Gulf.

Thousands of true hearts today beat in warm sympathy for the sadly bereaved widow.

Weekly Tobacco Report.

The receipts on our market for this week have not been very large, yet large enough to keep the tobacco men busy.

Farmers have bean here from far and near, from all points of the compass, and have expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the prices.

The prices have been better for this week than they have for any previous week in the new crop. The market is very active, with keen competition and outside prices on all graees.

Greensboro is the best all round market in the country and the farmers are finding it out. This is clearly proven by the yearly increase in our sales on this market and all you will have to do to be convinced of this fact is to give us a trial.

Stock Unbroken.

Despite the fact of the sacrificing of the clothing, hats and furnishing goods at the Fishblate-Katz Co., Inc., their lines are unbroken, the stock is most complete. Call and take advantage of the 60 cents on the dollar prices.

At St. Matthew's.

Dr. Bowen. of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., will preach for us at St. Matthew's M. E. church Sunday, October 15th, at 3 o'clock. We are glad such a treat is in store for us. Anderson S. Nelson.

We have a fine line of swatches from Strous & Bros. Should you want a suit or overcoat to order at reasonable figures, call on Fishblate Katz Co.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

RICH AND ROLLICKING.

The Great Southern Minstrels' Performance Last Night.

"That was the biggest house I ever saw in the academy," said a gentleman last night after the performance of the Great Southern Minstrels.

The house was literally packed, gallery and all, and the show was rich and rollicking from start to finish. The troupe embraces some exceedingly clever burnt cork artists, and the performance was as good, perhaps, as has ever been seen here. Nothing objectionable about it.

Some of the songs were sung here last week by the Barlow crowd and were not improved upon last night The bass soloist in Barlow's knocks the Great Southern out easy. They sung the same song: "Asleep in the Deep."

AT THE NORMAL.

Of the first 426 students enrolled at the State Normal and Industrial College 142 are members of the Methodist Episcopal church; 122 of the Presbyterian church; 54 of the Baptist church; 39 of the Episcopal church; 14 of the Christian church; 11 of the Protestent Methodist church; 5 of the Lutheran church; 1 is a member of the Friend's church; 1 of the German Reformed church; 1 of the Advent church; 1 of the Jewish church; 391—total church membership.

Of the 35 non-church members, 2 prefer the Friends' church; 6 the Presbyterian; 11 the Baptist, and 16 the Methodist.

Burglaries in Greensboro.

We learn that there has been quite a large number of burglaries in Greensboro recently. Almost every night some one's house is broken open. The burglars seem to be of a common stamp and usually take nothing more than food, furniture and wearing apparel. Our policemen had better be on the sharp lookout or these fellows may visit Winiton.—Winston Journal.

That is enough, friend. What do you expect them to take, the ceiling, the floor and the chimneys? The average house contains little else than food, furniture and wearing apparel.

To the Public.

In response to enquiries concerning the sale of home sites on the Vanbockelin property Tuesday, we state for the information of all that we will will sell some lots of from 5 to 10 acres to accommodate those who desire sufficient land for trucking and poultry raising. Central Land Co.

Any lady who likes tan shoes can get a genuine bargain at Thacker & Brockmann's now. We have a short lot of regular $2.00 and $2.25 ladies' tan and chocolate laced shoes to close out at $1 48.
